MARK 1:16-20

The first disciples

One day as Jesus was walking along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew throwing a net into the water, for they fished for a living. Jesus called out to them, "Come, follow me, and I will show you how to fish for people!" And they left their nets at once and followed him. A little farther up the shore Jesus saw Zebedee's sons, James and John, in a boat repairing their nets. He called them at once, and they also followed him, leaving their father, Zebedee, in the boat with the hired men.

JOHN MARK COMER

“One of the things we have lost in the West is that the way of Jesus is a way of life. It’s not just a set of ideas that we believe in our head, it’s not just a list of dos and don’ts that we obey or don’t obey or call ethics.

It’s a lifestyle. We are to adopt the lifestyle of Jesus.”

BISHOP STEPHEN NEILL

“To be a Christian means to be like Jesus Christ. Being a Christian depends on a certain inner relatedness to the living Christ. Through this relatedness all other relationships of a person – to God, to themselves, to other people – are transformed.”
